

Certificate program for child and youth workers

The Certificate Program for Child and Youth Workers is designed to offer youth workers a professional program of study that supports the growing needs of practitioners in out-of-school learning environments while earning college credits towards a degree.

- Earn a certificate for child and youth workers
- Get college credits that can be applied towards a degree

Change your future one class at a time!

- Earn credits towards teacher certification
- Attend classes part-time or full-time

- Financial assistance available for qualified applicants

Coursework

Literacy for College Studies, if needed

Introduction to College Writing

Teaching with Multimedia Technology

Youth Development: Theory and Practice

Building Learning Communities

First Aid and Safety Education

Creative Rhythms and Dance for Children

Games and Sports for Children

Action Research for Educators

Classes begin
June 7th, 2004

Apply by April 1st, 2004

Low introductory rate for first 30 applicants accepted to program.

For more information contact:

Dana Fusco

York College

Department of Teacher Education

718.262.2698

or fusco@york.cuny.edu

or download application

www.york.cuny.edu/~fusco